

Nebraska vs. San Jose State

Official Program – 15 cents

December 17, 1974

Nebraska's basketball team, 4-1, plays its third home game of the season tonight as the Huskers entertain Coach Ivan Guevara's San Jose State Spartans.

Last Saturday, the Huskers defeated Wichita State 78-65 and on Nov. 30 Nebraska defeated South Dakota State in the Coliseum 87-72. Nebraska's next home game will be at 7:35 p.m. on Dec. 23 against Southern basketball power Vanderbilt.

Cipriano has faced San Jose State only once and defeated the Spartans 80-63 at home in 1971. Overall, the series is tied at one-game apiece. During the 1947-48 season San Jose State defeated the Huskers at San Jose 39-38.

San Jose State returns all eight lettermen, including all five starters, from last year's team that was 11-15 overall and 2-10 in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association.

Through the games of Dec. 11, the Spartans were 6-2. San Jose State had defeated North Dakota (87-79), South Dakota (93-52), Montana State (72-60), Gonzaga (71-63) and Idaho 75-68. The Spartans have lost to Nevada-Reno (76-75) and Montana (70-63).

On Dec. 14, San Jose State defeated North Dakota State at home 86-66.

Spartan statistics after six games show that 6-4 guard Pat Barrett is the Spartans leading scorer with an average of 16.3 points. Behind Barrett is 6-7 forward Don Orndorff 12.8, 6-2 guard Pete Miller 9.7, 6-8 forward Ron Fair 8.5 and 6-10 center Rick Darnell 8.2.

Because of the experience on the Spartan team, Guevara is optimistic of a successful season. "So far this year we've had the type of play from the entire team that we've needed to be successful," he said. "In all the games we've had, at least four of our performers—and most of the time five—have scored in double figures."

Guevara entered the 1974-75 basketball season with an overall record of 33-44 as head coach at San Jose State.
